Administrator's Message

While attending a workshop over the summer, I heard the following comment, "Students should leave school every day exhausted, and teachers exhilarated." I'm not sure about the end of each day, but at the end of the first week, it can safely be stated that teachers and students alike are exhilarated and exhausted. Beginning with the joy-filled chapel service on Monday, we headed through a week of getting to know one another, of new experiences and new friends. Now it's Friday, and we will all appreciate the long weekend and look forward with eager expectation the weeks to come!

Mrs. Johns

Mrs. Jill Johns has been a substitute teacher here at Trinity for many years, and is currently undergoing treatments for her battle with cancer.

On September 15, there will be a pancake brunch fundraiser at Eagle's Club.

We would like to create something for the raffle fundraiser that will be part of the pancake brunch. Please see the attached sheet for details on how you can help!

PLAYGROUND UPDATE

The grass is growing and the students are enjoying the new playground equipment that is in place. Our newest addition is “Nine Square In the Air,” a game that combines volleyball and 4-Square skills. Middle school students are learning how to play this challenging and fast-paced game, and the younger students will become familiar with it once the grass is established. We are still awaiting the arrival of 5 more pieces of equipment and a table top for the outdoor classroom to have the playground fully functional.

FREE & REDUCED LUNCH APPLICATIONS

Packets to apply for free or reduced lunches are now available in the parent information center outside the office. Please fill out and return the application as soon as possible. You will be notified of your eligibility as soon as the application is processed.
