SHIRTS & BAGS NEEDED!

Does anyone have used tank tops (printed or solid) the school can use for a service project? We would like to make some tote bags for Orphan Grain Train. Needed also are plastic bags from stores to cut up and make mats to use in countries where people need something to sleep on.

Both items can be brought to the school and boxes will be placed by the office. We will be doing this project on February 5th and for an elective class starting next week.

Thank you so much,
Mrs. Eckert & Mrs. Gustafson

Our Teachers Through the Eyes of Our Students

Part 3

This week we'll take a look at our first and sixth grade teachers, Mrs. Marnholtz and Mr. Chapa. Read on to learn more about these amazing teachers as seen by their students.

Mrs. Marnholtz

First Grade Teacher

Five Important Facts about Mrs. Marnholtz

- She likes the color blue.
- She lets us have Show and Tell.
- She listens to us.
- She teaches us exercises to keep us healthy.
- She takes us to chapel

I like it when Mrs. Marnholtz lets us play inside during recess, reads to us, and forgives us when we do something wrong. You might not know it, but Mrs. Marnholtz is good at remembering things, likes caramel apples, likes to make cookies, and spends time with her family.

What I love most about Mrs. Marnholtz is that she teaches us to read, gives us hot chocolate, gave us a Jesus book, is kind, keeps us safe, lets us do math, teaches us about Jesus, and gives us hugs!

Mr. Chapa

Sixth Grade Homeroom

Five Important Facts about Mr. Chapa

- He's tall.
- He loves the Avengers.
- He's funny.
- He loves guinea pigs.
- He's energetic and loves to work out.

Some things you might not know about Mr. Chapa:

- He plays the drums.
- He's from Minnesota.
- He's a body builder.
- He's laid back and not so strict.
- He has the best math class.
- He loves to be with his students!

I like it when he gives us work or free time, when he plays board games with us, and when he tells funny jokes.
